

Peter Brown PNEAC, RP, ROI, Hon. RBA, PS

Friday 12 November to Friday 28 January 2022

Peter Brown is an obsessive plein air painter. Working solely in front of the subject refusing to use photographic reference, his passion for depicting everyday life and light has taken him across the world over the years. This is a small snap-shot of his oeuvre from over the last five years. Peter has always recorded our everyday lives and perhaps this has been no less important than over the last two years where he continued through the pandemic. His exhibition at Messums London in the autumn of 2020 tracked a packed London in the winter of 2019/20 into the pandemic in and out of lockdowns up to the end of the Summer 2020.

Peter was born in Reading in 1967, studied Art at Bath College of Higher Education and Manchester Polytechnic. He now lives in Bath with his wife Lisa and five children. He is President of the New English Art Club, a member of the Royal Society of Portrait Painters, The Royal Institute of Oil Painters, The Pastel Society and an honorary member of the Royal Society of British Artists.

Peter is represented by Messums London.
