

Sails, Places, Life

An Exhibition of Work by Jacquie Turner

Friday 27 May to Friday 24 June

Jacquie has a degree in Fine Art and studied at Winchester School of Art when the inspirational Gillian Ayres was head of painting and who by coincidence is represented by the Cristea Roberts Gallery in Pall Mall, almost opposite the Royal Automobile Club. After graduating she supported herself working at Marlborough Fine Art in London which represents Henry Moore, Francis Bacon, Graham Sutherland and the amazing Frank Auerbach. Jacquie moved to the Arts Council working part time and then briefly to The Tate Gallery before leaving to paint full time. A rower and enthusiastic paddleboarder on the Thames, this year her paintings will be on show in the trophy tent at the Henley Royal Regatta.
