

Quintessentially British - Cars and Rain

Richard Neergaard

Friday 30 September to Friday 28 October

Britain is steeped in culture and tradition with iconic characters, love of cars and a frequent splash of rain.

Richard Neergaard has captured an eclectic view of this with his most British friend “Bubbly” and three dimensional multimedia works of rain and cars. The rain works are sculpted in resin in many layers to form the intense gloss, drops and splashes. The car works all include original parts from F1 or classic cars embedded in aluminium panels which are laser cut, CNC bent, anodised and then coated with a laminated, computer calculated and plodder cut high resolution photo mounted on high gloss acrylic. The Bubbly series originals are oil on canvas but prints are available in various sizes.

Richard has works in the British Motor Museum, the Los Angeles Driving Museum, the Jaguar Heritage Trust museum, the Williams F1 museum, Alfa Romeo F1, McLaren F1 and Williams F1 headquarters. He studied art at UAL - Central Saint Martins, The Art Academy London and Otis Art School Los Angeles.
