

Jerome Jaksch

Sports and Deep Tissue Massage Therapist

Jerome is from a small town called Linz in Austria and moved to London a year ago as a qualified Sports Massage Therapist, Personal Trainer and Nutritional Adviser with a deep understanding about the human anatomy.

He uses a variation of techniques to support deficiencies and improve mobility and functionality of the tissues.

Additionally he is experienced to work on postural assessment, rehabilitation and injury treatment including home care advices with his best knowledge.