

‘The Greats’ Summer Exhibition

William Lansbury

Wednesday 26 July to Friday 1 September

When we watch motor racing are we thinking that we could be behind the wheel or are we admiring the beauty of the cars.

Do we secretly feel we could do better, be more daring, take Stowe or Parabolica quicker.

In our minds are we spraying champagne and answering the quick fire questions from journalists as admiring fans fight for an autograph.

Would it be enough just to own one of the cars or would we need to race it, to show that we too can make our mark in the story of motor racing.

From the Grand Prix greats of the 1930s, the sports car aces of the 1960s and ‘70s to more modern Formula 1.

This exhibition is not just art, it is history.
