THE FLAVOUR MAP

The Flavour Map is a distillation of knowledge from some of Scotland's most experienced professionals which demonstrates that in practice, when it comes to flavour in a glass, all malt whiskies can be plotted on a simple grid.

SINGLE MALT WHISKIES

HIGHLAND AND SPEYSIDE

Highland Malt Whiskies, made north of the imaginary line drawn from Dundee in the East to Greenock in the West, share a firm, dry character with slight peatiness and saltiness. The Northern area of the Highlands tends to produce whiskies of a spicier character. The Eastern area, which is more sheltered from the coastal winds, and into the Midlands, produce whiskies of a fruitier character.
