A BRIEF HISTORY OF BROOKLANDS 1926

No3 London Dry Gin, Dry Vermouth, Green Chartreuse, Luxardo Maraschino, dash of orange bitters and finished with 3 drops of basil oil

Inspired by the inaugural British Grand Prix at Brooklands in 1926, this cocktail recalls the race that made history on a British course while won by a French team. London Dry Gin meets Dry Vermouth, Green Chartreuse, a dash of orange bitters and a final touch of basil oil, echoing the vibrant green racing livery of the era. Brooklands 1926 is a refined tribute to motorsport history, British in structure, French in triumph and distinctly 1920s in spirit.
