

NEW SAILING PAINTINGS – RACING AND LIFE JACQUIE TURNER

FRIDAY 29 MAY TO FRIDAY 26 JUNE

This is Jacquie's third exhibition at the Royal Automobile Club.

Her sailing canvases are represented and exhibited at Kendalls Fine Art Gallery in Cowes, Isle of Wight. It is a beautiful gallery space and this year is the Cowes week Bicentenary Regatta.

Jacquie's paintings reflect the energy, exhilaration, colour and excitement of the sport.

However, she also relates her work to the tranquillity of a dawn anchorage or the evening buzz of the post-race marina.

Jacquie has a degree in Fine Art and studied whilst Gillian Ayres was head of painting at Winchester School of Art. She worked at Marlborough Fine Art after Art College and subsequently at The Arts Council.

She uses her paddleboard, canoe and RIB to edge into the best positions to view sailing and races- but sailing on the family's Sadler29 with her camera provides some unforgettable images which are stored in her Buckinghamshire studio until she is ready to put them on canvas.

The creative process is intuitive, and she returns to each painting over a period of time until the colour and form reach a balanced but edgy harmony.
