SPRITZES

The Club is proud to celebrate the 100th anniversary of Britain's first Grand Prix, at Brooklands, where it played a pivotal role in bringing international motor racing to the UK.

To mark the occasion, we have curated a playful spritz menu inspired by some of the most spirited moments in Britain's Grand Prix history

01

THE BROOKLANDS SPECIAL

Lillet Rosé, peach, prosecco, soda, fresh peach and raspberry

A salute to the very first British Grand Prix, held on the rough concrete banking of Brooklands exactly 100 years ago in 1926

02

POLE POSITION 1950

Plymouth gin, Suze, elderflower cordial, ginger ale, prosecco, lemon, cucumber

Inspired by the first F1 World Championship Grand Prix, held at Silverstone and won by Nino Farina's Alfa Romeo 76 summers ago

03

MOSS AND THE MAESTRO

Italicus, Blue Curacao, a dash of orange juice, prosecco

A smooth, elegant spritz paying homage to Stirling Moss finishing a nose ahead of Mercedes team-mate Juan Manuel Fangio at Aintree

04

CLARK'S FAMOUS FIVE

Prosecco, Chivas Regal, Lillet Rosé, strawberry syrup, fresh strawberry and peppercorn

Inspired by Jim Clark's then-record of winning five British GPs in just six years for Lotus during the Swinging 1960s

05

THE HUNT-LAUDA HEATWAVE

Código Rosa tequila, home-made mango syrup, chili, grenadine, Champagne

A fiery cocktail to match the fierce rivalry that spilled over at Brands Hatch between James Hunt and Niki Lauda in the long, hot summer of 1976

06

THE SILVERSTONE SWITCHEROO

Malibu, coconut water, lime, coconut, prosecco

A bold, playful twist inspired by Nigel Mansell selling Nelson Piquet a memorable dummy to get past him at Silverstone in 1987

07

SCHUMACHER'S PITLANE VICTORY

Havana 3yo rum, fresh mint, lime, prosecco

A sharp, dramatic spritz inspired by Michael Schumacher's strange 1998 victory, the only time an F1 driver has won by crossing the finish line in the pitlane

08

HAMILTON'S MAGIC NINE

Pear-infused Absolut vodka, Chambord, prosecco, tonic water

Powerful, polished and record-breaking. Just like Lewis Hamilton's historic ninth British GP victory in 2024, cementing his legacy in front of an adoring home crowd
